E. C. MEANS
ASHLAND, KENTUCKY

May 10th 1930

To whom it may Concern:

As part of the consideration for Nora R. Davis executing a note, in my favor, secured by a mortgage on her home place situated at the Southwesterly corner of Lexington Ave and 21st Street in Ashland Ky, both note and mortgage dated May 9th 1930, paid note being in the sum of twelve thousand ~~no~~ ($12000.00) dollars and payable on or before May 9th 1936, with interest, it was agreed by me with the approval of my wife, Ruby R. Means, that when the principal amount of the note is reduced to Six thousand ~~no~~ ($6000.00) dollars by payments thereon, that the lien on said property covered by the mortgage shall, upon request, be released, the same as if the note had been paid in full — It being the intention of both myself and my wife that six thousand ~~no~~ ($6000.00) dollars, one half of said loan, is to be considered as the only liability of said Nora R. Davis, sister of my wife, upon said note.

Said note, as further security for the payment thereof, was endorsed by L. N. Davis, husband of said Nora R. Davis and it is to be clearly understood that he is not to be released from any liability for the payment of the principal sum of twelve thousand ~~no~~ ($12000.00) dollars or any part thereof —

Nora R. Davis paid the twelve thousand ~~no~~ ($12000.00) borrowed from me, to the Second National Bank of Ashland, Ky, on May 10th 1930 for the benefit of said

EATON'S RISE TOLD FOR PARLIAMENT

Canadian Concern's Sales Were $132,500,000 Last Year, $22,428,000 in 1907.

PAYROLL AT $24,945,000

Annual Interest Charges Less Than $1,000,000, Government Committee Hears.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 11 (Canadian Press).—In 1869 Timothy Eaton opened a small store at the southwest corner of Yonge and Queen Streets, Toronto. He did most of the selling himself. In the year ended on Jan. 11, 1934, the T. Eaton Company, Ltd., had sales of $132,500,000, a payroll of $24,945,000 and assets of $100,035,000 and operated from Cape Breton to the Rocky Mountains. Its peak year for business was 1929, with sales of $225,053,000. Its growth was explained today to the Parliamentary Mass Buying Committee by W. L. Gordon, one of the committee's investigating auditors.

The company, controlled by the estate of the late Sir John Eaton, son of Timothy Eaton, owns and operates thirteen large department stores, five mail-order distributing depots, thirty-two small department stores, seventy-two groceterias, three creameries, 112 mail-order offices, seven factories, four warehouses, nine buying offices throughout the world and ten non-merchandising companies.

In forty-three years all the outside capital taken in by the expanding company was less than $13,000,000. It paid its own way as it grew, and today its annual interest charge on mortgages, bonds and debentures is less than $1,000,000. The capital of the Eaton Company at incorporation in 1891 was $248,500 with a balance in the surplus account of $248,500. The present issued capital is $1,000,000, a figure maintained since before 1911.

The Eaton commercial edifice is controlled by the Sir John Eaton estate, which owns 8,890 of the 10,000 shares of the T. Eaton Company, Ltd. A hook-up is maintained between the estate and the operating company and all subsidiaries, which include an insurance com-

Paramount Publix Corporation

STOCKHOLDERS PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE

To the Holders of Common Stock of Paramount Publix Corporation:

The amendment of the Bankruptcy Act, to provide for corporate reorganizations, became effective on June 7, 1934. A Bondholders' Protective Committee promptly filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York a petition to bring the Paramount Publix Corporation within the provisions of the new Section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act, for the purpose of effectuating a reorganization thereunder. Shortly thereafter another petition to accomplish this purpose was filed in behalf of three individual bondholders.

The undersigned Committee is satisfied that under the provisions of the new Section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act, a reorganization of Paramount Publix Corporation will require the affirmative consent of a majority of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation.

It is, therefore, obviously of the utmost importance that the Committee should, at the earliest possible time, be representative of at least a majority of the common stock of the corporation. Thereby the interests of the stockholders can be more effectively represented in connection with the formulation of any plan of reorganization by or in cooperation with creditors, or in the event of the promulgation of a plan not considered by the Committee as giving adequate recognition to the rights of the stockholders, the Committee will be effectively in position to propose its own plan. Of the 3,380,121 shares outstanding, the Committee already has on deposit with it 1,495,000 shares, or in excess of 44% of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation.

Stockholders who have not already deposited their shares with the undersigned Committee, are, therefore, urged to give immediate attention to the deposit of same with the Committee.

The Commercial National Bank and Trust Company of New York, 56 Wall Street, New York City, is Depositary for the Committee, and will issue to all depositing stockholders transferable Certificates of Deposit under the Deposit Agreement dated as of January 27, 1933, under which the Committee is constituted. The Certificates of Deposit are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, but the shares are no longer listed. For the convenience of stockholders residing in sections remote from New York the following banks and trust companies are acting as Sub-Depositaries:

The First National Bank of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois;
Bank of America National Trust & Savings Association, Trust Department, Main Office, Los Angeles, California;
Whitney National Bank of New Orleans, Trust Department, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Letters of Transmittal which must accompany all deposits, as well as a copy of the Deposit Agreement may be obtained from the Depositary or any of the Sub-Depositaries or from the Secretary of the Committee.
