“HOME OF THE KENTUCKY LADY KATS”
(capacity — 8,700)

Memorial Coliseum is the home of one of the richest basketball traditions in the entire world. It is also the home of Coach Sharon Fanning's Kentucky Lady Kats, a team determined to bring glory and excitement to a facility that has known a wealth of both.

For 24 years, the historic coliseum housed the renowned Kentucky Wildcats, who won two national championships and 24 Southeastern Conference titles there under the direction of legendary coaches Adolph Rupp and Joe B. Hall. But the Wildcats moved downtown to 23,000-seat Rupp Arena in 1976, leaving the 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum as the exclusive home basketball court of the highly-regarded Lady Kats.

Since then, Memorial Coliseum has undergone renovations to include a state-of-the-art weight room, basketball and administrative offices, a team meeting room and modern dressing and lockerrooms.

The Lady Kats have added a Southeastern Conference title and a National Women's Invitational Tournament Championship to their list of accomplishments, and have proudly carved a 209-71 home court record into the history of the now 8,700-seat coliseum.

The undisputed highlight of the Lady Kats' Memorial Coliseum era came on a cold winter night in 1983. The date was February 5 and the opponent was No. 5 Old Dominion, with 6-foot-8 All-American center Anne Donovan looming as no foe had before. A record crowd of 10,622 fired-up fans packed the Coliseum that Saturday evening, and roared hysterically as the sixth-ranked Lady Kats came from 10 points down in the second half for an 80-66 upset win. After the victory the Lady Kats, who were led by their own All-American Valerie Still, climbed to fourth in the national poll. In their three remaining home games, they averaged 7,600 fans. And they easily led the nation in attendance that year.

Just as their male counterparts did before them, the Lady Kats have made Memorial Coliseum the home of a high-class, winning program. They have never had a bad season at home, and once boasted a 31-game win streak in the Coliseum.

In 1984, University President H.L. Donovan began plans for the Coliseum, when he recommended a building that would “properly take care of our athletics, our health services, our physical education and our recreation.” The building was also nicknamed “the house that Rupp built,” since “the Baron's” standout teams had long since outgrown 2,800-seat Alumni Coliseum.

Memorial Coliseum was completed in 1950 at a cost of $3,995,000. The huge building was dedicated to serve as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentuckians who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict. The Coliseum covers an entire city block and has as much space as a seven-story office building.

Situated along Euclid Avenue, Memorial Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games and Athletic Department offices, but also serves as the site of other sporting events, lectures and concerts.

Memorial Coliseum has been the exclusive basketball home for the Lady Kats since 1976.

The Lady Kats set a national attendance record February 5, 1983, against Old Dominion.

Going into the 1992-93 basketball campaign, the Kentucky Lady Kats knew of the enormous challenge ahead. A schedule which featured 11 nationally-ranked teams faced the Lady Kats, as well as tackling the brutal Southeastern Conference regular season slate.

The Lady Kats, under Coach Sharon Fanning, met the challenge for the most part. In fact, the Lady Kats fashioned a respectable 18-10 overall record which included a sixth-place finish (5-6) in the powerful SEC. Kentucky experienced several highlights during the season. A last-second victory over intrastate rival Western Kentucky was perhaps the most exciting win of the season. Reclaiming the Lady Kats Invitational title may have been the most sentimental accomplishment and earning a national ranking of No. 24 in the Associated Press' weekly poll could be considered the most rewarding honor for the program's performance.

Looking at the season, the Lady Kats were 1-0 heading into the 15th annual Lady Kats Invitational Tournament following a season-opening victory over Marshall University. UK defeated Murray State in the first round and then knocked off nationally-ranked Connecticut in the title game 75-54. Senior forward Jocelyn Mills, who scored 28 points and grabbed 12 rebounds in the tournament, was named Most Valuable Player of the LKIT for the second time in her career.

UK struggled in its next two tournaments, finishing third in the Iowa Amana Hawkeye and the Wichita State Pizza Hut Classic. But the team brought the New Year in with a bang, beating nationally-ranked Kansas on New Year's Eve, 71-61. Shortly thereafter, the Kats were ranked 24th in the nation by the Associated Press and No. 23 by USA Today. The rankings were the first for the program since 1990. Kentucky then entered SEC play. The Lady Kats experienced success out of the gate with wins over South Carolina and Mississippi State. Kentucky also defeated Georgia for the first time in nine years. Shortly after, UK played nationally-ranked Auburn close into the final seconds of the game before dropping a hard-fought, 52-49, decision to the Lady Tigers. That defeat left the Kats with only three days to prepare for intrastate rival and 1992 NCAA championship runner-up Western Kentucky. Despite the brief rest, UK rallied to upset the Lady Hilltoppers, 62-60, in Memorial Coliseum on a last-second shot from guard Stacey Reed. It marked the second consecutive year that the Kats had beaten nationally-ranked WKU in the final seconds of the game.

Another rivalry soon followed with perennial power Tennessee awaiting the Lady Kats. UK could not repeat the earlier upset of WKU as the Lady Kats dropped an 85-61 decision to the Lady Vols. The loss to UT was costly as it dropped the team from the USA Today and AP national polls simultaneously in February. One positive note from the UK-UT contest was Jocelyn Mills, a native of Tennessee, scoring her 1,000 career point.

UK reigned in the Bluegrass, defeating every intrastate opponent it faced. The Kats posted wins over Murray State, Western Kentucky, Louisville, Morehead State and Eastern Kentucky.

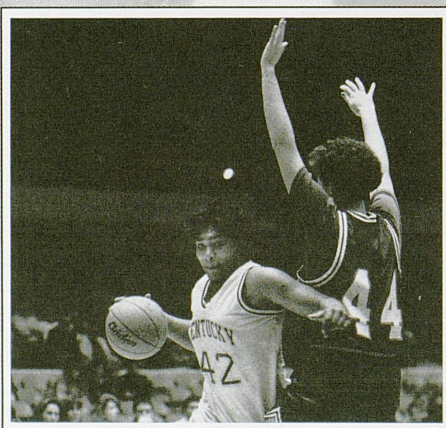

However, the end of the season was turbulent of the Kats, as they lost their last three regular-season games to Ole Miss, nationally-ranked Vanderbilt and Florida. UK beat Mississippi State in the first round of the SEC Tournament (84-73), but lost to eventual tournament champion Vanderbilt in the second round (68-61) to close the Lady Kat season.

Mills was the offensive leader of the team throughout the '92-'93 campaign. Mills led the team in scoring (15.4 ppg) and rebounding (7.5 rpg).

Mills scored in double figures 21 times, including UK's last 11 games. She established a career-high, scoring 32 points against Butler, and was named to the All-SEC first team. She also received recognition in the conference, being named SEC Player of the Week during the final week of the regular season. She moved to 12th in all-time Lady Kats scoring with 1,170 career points and fifth in all-time rebounding with 703 boards. Other double-digit scorers for the season included Reed (11.4 ppg), Mia Daniel (10.7 ppg) and Tedra Eberhart (10.0 ppg).

Also making waves in the record book besides Mills were Reed and Daniel—UK's main three-point shooters. Daniel broke the Lady Kat game record for most three-point attempts (12 vs. Auburn). Both Reed and Daniel each established UK game records for most three-point goals made in a game with five.

Mills and Reed placed their names on several all-tournament teams. In addition to Mills making the All-SEC and LKIT teams, she was named to the Iowa Amana Hawkeye all-tournament team. Reed was named to the All-SEC second-team and to the Wichita State Pizza Hut Classic all-tournament teams.

Jocelyn Mills led the Lady Kats in scoring (15.4 ppg, 7.5 rpg) and was named to the All-SEC squad in 1993.

Coach Sharon Fanning likes to talk about balance when pointing to her 1993-94 Kentucky Lady Kats.

Balance between old and new, offense and defense. Three starters return, along with eight letterwinners, from last season's 18-10 squad which finished sixth in the always-tough Southeastern Conference. To balance the old, Fanning has added a talented freshman class which could contribute immediately.

The balance between offense and defense is simple. Three of the Lady Kats top five scorers return from a year ago. Defensively, Fanning welcomes back UK's top performers in steals from last season — Stacey Reed (68) and Tedra Eberhart (57).

"Our philosophy is to have balance, and I think any player we put on the floor will be able to score, play defense and rebound," said Fanning, who enters her seventh year as head coach of the Lady Kats. "I feel good about this team. I think our opponents will have to be concerned with us as a team, both offensively and defensively. We should also be able to get a lot of contribution off the bench and a lot of players are going to help us win."

Last season, Kentucky earned a No. 24 national ranking in the Associated Press' women's poll and a No. 23 ranking in USA Today's national poll. Although the look of the team has changed, the goals set last season remain the same in '93-'94 — to earn national rankings, be competitive in the SEC and make the NCAA Tournament field.

Returning to help the team accomplish those goals is junior guard Stacey Reed. Reed, who earned second-team All-SEC last year, brings quickness and a jump shot with range to the program. She averaged 11.4 points and four rebounds per game in 1992-93 and was able to find an opening to the basket in most games. Reed started all 28 games last year and scored in double figures 18 times. She was a consistent threat from three-point range, making almost 40 percent of her attempts (.387).

Also returning to the starting lineup are seniors Tedra Eberhart and Jennifer Gray. Eberhart averaged 10 points and 5.6 rebounds last season. Eberhart scored in double figures 13 times, including a career-high 20 points against Georgia and a career-high 14 boards against Cincinnati. Her defense also drew praise from Coach Fanning.

Gray started 27 of 28 games while averaging 7.8 points and 4.4 rebounds. She scored a career-high 21 points against Mississippi State in the first round of the SEC Tournament and led the team in blocked shots with a total of 15. She made 81.1 percent of her free throws and 45.5 percent of her field goal attempts.

The Lady Kats will be strong at the guard position. An exciting tandem could be the combination of Reed and sophomore Christina Jansen at the point and shooting positions. Jansen appeared in 27 games last season, averaging 3.3 points and 1.4

rebounds. She was fourth on the team in assists (1.4) and steals (1.5).

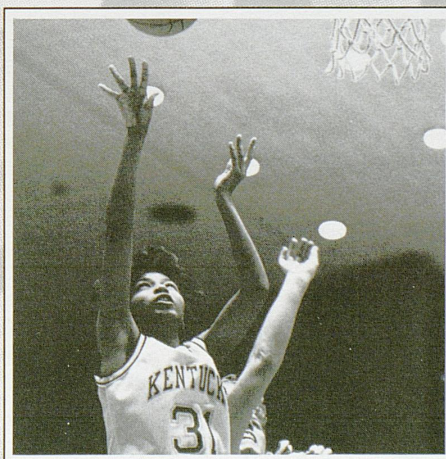

Also returning at the guard position is sophomore Julie Swarens (0.8 ppg, 0.8 rpg). UK welcomes a pair of freshmen guards in Chrissy Roberts (22.0 ppg, 7.0 rpg) and Lyssa Simpson (17.0 ppg, 10.0 rpg). Roberts made all-state as a senior at Eminence High School. Simpson, who prepped at St. Anthony High in Jersey City, N.J., was second-team all-state as a senior as well. Simpson attended the same high school which produced Wildcats swingman Rodrick Rhodes.

At the post, the Lady Kats have experience with Gray and 6-4 junior Karri Koach (3.4 ppg, 3.0 rpg). The addition of 6-2 freshman Anne Sarkalahti (10.0 ppg, 5.0 rpg) gives the team additional height and depth.

The Lady Kats will have big shoes to fill at the forward positions with the departure of Jocelyn Mills, who led the team in scoring and rebounding last season with 15.4 points and 7.5 boards, and Mia Daniel, who was one of the team's main three-point shooters. UK returns Eberhart and seniors Christe Jordan and Kayla Campbell to help pick up the slack.

Campbell (1.9 ppg, 1.0 rpg) played in all 28 games last year, while earning two starts (vs. Eastern Kentucky and Ole Miss). Jordan (2.6 ppg, 2.5 rpg) also saw action in all 28 games and averaged 10.3 minutes of playing time.

Freshmen Stephanie Higginbotham (16.0 ppg, 9.0 rpg) and Keeoma Wardford (14.0 ppg, 14.0 rpg) will add depth at the forward positions. Higginbotham was a first-team all-state selection at Russell County High last season. Her outstanding athletic ability was showcased when she was named Kentucky High School Athlete of the Year for her performances in basketball and softball. Wardford was also an all-state selection as a senior forward at Sunset (Ore.) High and was a nationally-ranked field events athlete in track.

Senior Tedra Eberhart returns (10 ppg, 5.6 rpg) to help UK reach its goals.

Sharon Fanning enters her seventh season as head basketball coach of the Kentucky Lady Kats and her 18th season overall as a collegiate head coach.

During her tenure at UK, Fanning has become one of the most successful coaches in Lady Kats basketball history. Her record at Kentucky stands at 103-72 (.588 pct.). Overall, Fanning has compiled a mark of 292-201 (.592 pct.) which includes 11 years at UT-Chattanooga.

Fanning, a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., led UK's 1992-93 team to 18 wins and national rankings, while gaining a personal milestone along the way. She won her 100th game (a 77-73 win over Alabama) since coming to UK, moved further up the list in all-time Lady Kats coaching victories with a total of 103, and inched closer to reaching a milestone-300 career wins.

Since arriving at UK in 1987, Fanning has rebuilt the program into a competitive force. Though the rebuilding process was slow in the beginning with her first two Lady Kat squads below .500 with 14-15 and 12-16 records, respectively, there were legitimate reasons. Fanning took over a program near the bottom of the Southeastern Conference and with little talent in the cupboard. Injuries and personal problems saw a roster of 15 shrink to nine en route to an 0-9 record and a 14-15 overall mark in her first campaign (1987-88). A year later, the Lady Kats improved their SEC record to 3-6 and finished with a 12-16 record.

SHARON FANNING
(Tennessee-Chattanooga, 1975)
7th Season at UK
18th Season in Collegiate Coaching

Kentucky was ranked No. 24 the Associated Press national poll in 1989-90 and posted a 23-8 record enroute to winning its first NWIT (National Women's Invitational Tournament) championship. One year later, UK made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in six years as Fanning led the Lady Kats to a sparkling 20-9 ledger.

Prior to coming to UK, Fanning spent 11 memorable seasons coaching her alma mater, Tennessee-Chattanooga. While at UTC, she compiled an overall record of 189-129 and led her squads to five straight Southern Conference championships and the NIT Tournament. She was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985 and was nominated for Kodak National Coach of the Year honors in 1984. In 1986, Fanning coached the North squad in the U.S. Olympic Festival and was named to the staff of the USA Select team a year later. The University of Kentucky continues to keep the term "student-athlete" in the proper perspective — student first, athlete second.

For that reason, the University of Kentucky opened the nation's first academic center for student-athletes in 1981. The academic center is known as the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services or simply "CATS."

CATS is located inside Memorial Coliseum. The center, specifically designed with the student-athlete in mind, contains a large general study area along with numerous smaller rooms used for tutoring. CATS expanded during the past academic year and added a language library, additional tutoring rooms, a media center and a new computer facility.

Currently, the UKAA budgets close to $500,000 per year for the CATS Center.

"CATS is a tremendous advantage for all of our student athletes," says Lady Kats Coach Sharon Fanning. "We are very proud that Kentucky was the first in the nation to initiate an academic tutorial service of this magnitude."

"Our CATS staff monitors study hall, sets up tutors, requires a freshman orientation program to make sure our athletes get off to a good start and maintains flexible hours to accommodate any request for study time," said Fanning. "CATS also helps arrange summer job opportunities and works with the coaching staff on job placement upon graduation."

Former UK Football Coach Jerry Claiborne put the importance of the CATS Center in perspective when he said:

"There's no question, the CATS Center is a very important part of not only the UK football program, but the entire UK athletics program. Academic pursuits come first at Kentucky."

Indeed, academics do come first. The combination of the CATS Center and Claiborne, who retired after the 1989 football season and has since been replaced by Bill Curry, brought a national championship to UK in 1989. The UK football program was awarded the 1989 College Football Association's Academic Achievement Award for the nation's highest graduation rate for its 1983 freshman class. UK's achievement marked the first time since the inception of the award that a team other than Duke, Virginia or Notre Dame had won the award.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS Center. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student Development, her assistant Sheila Breeding and academic counselor Mike Haley. The CATS Center also employs four graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community.

"CATS is an incredible advantage to a student-athlete over another without an academic center," Bradley says. "This is a medium which the student-athlete can get any question about his or her academic endeavors answered." Bradley also says it helps to have head coaches that place such a strong emphasis on academics. "Many support systems across the nation do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes," Bradley said. "I have been blessed at Kentucky."

The philosophy at the University of Kentucky is this: Colleges should be able to afford the student-athlete with every opportunity to succeed not only in athletics, but in academics as well. Looking at recent statistics in Academic Honor Roll selections and graduation rates, Kentucky is standing by its philosophy.

At UK, the CATS Center certainly plays an instrumental part in keeping student-athletes at championship performance in the classroom...and on the field.

"CATS helps our players understand overachievement in the classroom. The CATS staff expects the same energy in its program as our coaching staff expects on the basketball court," said Fanning. "CATS is definitely a Kentucky advantage!"

It's exciting to have a walk-on give the energy, time and loyalty that's necessary to produce a championship team. The Lady Kats program appreciates Stephanie's commitment and winning attitude."

"Stephanie can pass and shoot with anybody, anywhere, anytime. She played point guard, so to speak, in high school, but we will look at her initially as a forward. Stephanie is strong enough to post up, mobile enough to come outside and shoot the three and to cover defense at a forward. Our biggest question is her size. We do not really know just how she will fit in at a four-position with rebounding and playing defense against usually taller opponents in the Southeastern Conference. Her offensive skills are exceptional around the bucket and we think that will be a plus for her."

"Christina had an excellent off-season. She has gained strength and developed a much-improved shooting touch. She has all the attributes to be an outstanding collegiate point guard. At the point, she distributes the basketball, is a competitor, and has the ability to get us into whatever offensive play is called. Last year, her best basketball came as the season progressed. She had a tremendous game the first round of the SEC Tournament and we're hoping that will carry over into this year. She prepared for that over the summer by working camps and training and we anticipate her doing a great job running the team on the court this year."

"Christe is another one of our players who has had an excellent off-season. She has developed into a good leader for this team. Christe has the opportunity to fill the forward spot of Jocelyn Mills, whom we lost to graduation. Christe understands our system. Her confidence level has improved on both ends of the court. The excellent work she did during the off-season in the weight room should be an asset for her in the paint this year. We expect Christe to provide leadership this season."

"Stacey has had what I consider two quality years and I think her junior year is definitely a big year in terms of a player's progress. Her experience, maturity and leadership should go to another level this year. We anticipate working her at a shooting guard spot because of the way she pulls up on a jump shot, runs the floor and her ball handling abilities. This should be a big year for her. Usually you see a tremendous amount of growth from a college basketball player when they reach their junior year."

"I think Chrissy will develop into a tremendous Southeastern Conference basketball player. She will work in the preseason at both the point and shooting guard spots. As the year progresses, we will determine where she fits in with our system. I anticipate her playing both positions. She learns quickly, is a hard worker and will be a very good defensive player for us. She can shoot three-pointers and handle the basketball under extreme defensive pressure. Going from a small high school setting to the college setting is different in terms of her learning the athleticism of the college players. It will just be a matter of time, but I see her contributing in a big way this season."

Several former Lady Kats players are giving their services to the University by working in athletic offices while finishing their degrees.

UK

VALERIE STILL

If there was ever a Lady Kat who deserved the title of "Miss Everything" it is Valerie Still. Still, who lettered at UK from 1979-83, is the all-time leading scorer in the history of UK basketball — for both the men's and women's programs — having scored a total of 2,763 points (625 more than Dan Issel). She is the program's only Kodak All-American, having earned the honor in 1982 and 1983. She is the all-time leading rebounder (1,525) and is fourth in all-time steals (199).

She led the program in scoring four consecutive years with a career average of 23.2 points per game and her name is etched throughout the Lady Kats record section. A four-year starter, Still helped the Lady Kats to their highest national ranking (4th) in 1983. She helped UK to a record 31-homecourt wins from 1980-82. She also led the sixth-ranked Kats to an 80-66 upset over powerhouse Old Dominion in 1983 before a record crowd of 10,622 in Memorial Coliseum. The Kats moved to fourth nationally following the victory over Old Dominion and easily led the nation in attendance that season, drawing an average of 7,600 fans per game. She was also well known throughout the competitive SEC and earned All-Conference honors in 1982 and 1983.

Still's jersey was retired at the senior banquet held at Spindletop in 1983. She continued her basketball career overseas, playing professionally in Italy where she resides today.

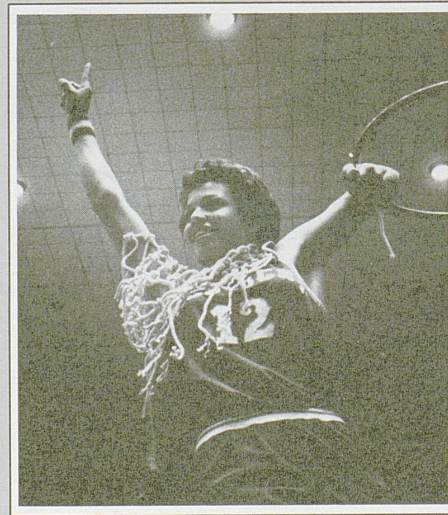

Still, former athletics director Cliff Hagan and former Lady Kats coach Terry Hall.

DID YOU KNOW —

UK's series with Tennessee is one of the longest running in the history of the Lady Kats program.

The Lady Kats appearance in the semifinals of the 1992 SEC Tournament was the first since 1982 when UK won the title.

"Inside Stuff" cohost Ahmad Rashad was a celebrity guest coach when UK beat Morehead State 66-38. He joined the girls for their pregame meal and gave "coaching" tips during pregame discussion.

John Michael Montgomery sang and gave support during the Lady Kats Invitational Tournament. His song "I Love The Way You Love Me" was No. 1 on the country single charts. "Life's a Dance" was also a top hit for the Nicholasville native.

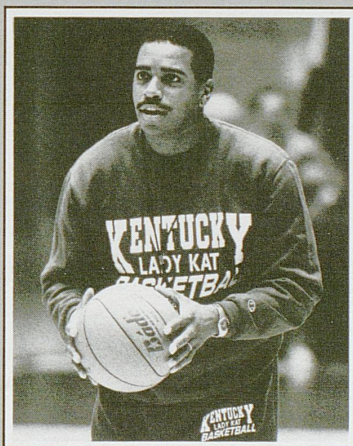

Guest Coaches

So, you've always wanted to be a coach. The Kentucky Lady Kats offer select individuals the chance to go behind the scenes and experience the great tradition of basketball at UK.

In its third year, the guest coach program continues to be an excellent connection between the community and the women's basketball program. Local, national, community, civic and government leaders, as well as celebrities are invited to be a guest coach at a Lady Kat home game of their choice.

Prior to game time, the guest coaches tour Memorial Coliseum, discuss the scouting report with the Lady Kats coaching staff and share inspiring words with the team. The guest coaches are allowed to sit behind the UK bench during the game and go into the lockerroom with the team at half-time and following the game. Coach Fanning and her staff have been very appreciative of the participation that they have received with the program and look forward to sharing an exciting 1993-94 season with the individuals who have been invited to be a guest coach with the program.

Former celebrity guest coaches include host of the television show "Inside Stuff" and football analyst Ahmad Rashad (top) and country music recording artist John Michael Montgomery (bottom).

C.M. Newton

When Charles Martin (C.M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation of integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics. In accepting the position at his alma mater, Newton summarized his goals and objectives by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to totally do it within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school from 1982 to 1989, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall, ranking among the top 10 active coaches in the game in terms of total victories. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. And including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international basketball, and as chairman of its Games Committee, which is responsible for all international competition, including the Olympic Games. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee, and is chair of an NCAA committee on basketball issues.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record. In addition to three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C.M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodores basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy Thompson and — four grandchildren.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that awaits students at UK. At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FACTS

History

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington, Jr., is UK's 10th president.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 72,000 students with 24,200 on the Lexington campus and 48,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 38 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 5,100 students now enrolled in graduate school with 95 master's and 59 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,643 full-time faculty on the Lexington campus and 1,096 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in more than $100 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year.

Academic Programs

Currently, there are 17 academic colleges and a graduate school. Students have a choice of 108 undergraduate majors from which to choose. The University is recommended in seven publications for its value in providing higher education.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation, and is one of only 45 public universities in the United States—the only one in Kentucky—to be classified as a Research University of First Class.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 461-bed hospital, is located on the Lexington campus. Over 3,500 students are enrolled in its five colleges—medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, and allied health professions.

Library

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The library is ranked 34th among the 108 top university research libraries in North America based upon the number of volumes held. The University has raised $18 million in private funds toward the construction of a new $58 million state-of-the-art library.

Sports

The current number of UK sports on the varsity level is 21—10 men's sports, 10 women's sports, and 1 coed sport. The men's sports consist of football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer. For the women, UK sponsors basketball, volleyball, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, and soccer on the varsity level. The single coed sport is rifle.

The UK men's basketball team has been prominent nationally for 50 years under the leadership of four coaches, ranging from Adolph Rupp to Rick Pitino. The UK football program also offers the excitement of top-level competition in the Southeastern Conference and is headed by Coach Bill Curry.

UK

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

Where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures, home to Kentucky's most famous resident—the horse.

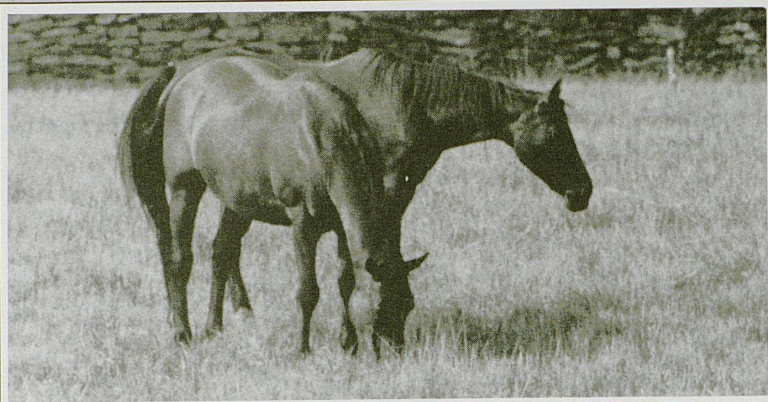

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky.

Lexington is one beauty of a city. John O. Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Jerrico, Island Creek Coal, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities.

The city offers UK students much in the way of entertainment: a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffeehouses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky, and it's an area most residents would not seriously consider leaving. Lexington, Kentucky—one beauty of a city.

KENTUCKY

If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart. —Jesse Stuart. Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of major metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. And the description would be accurate, since the Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

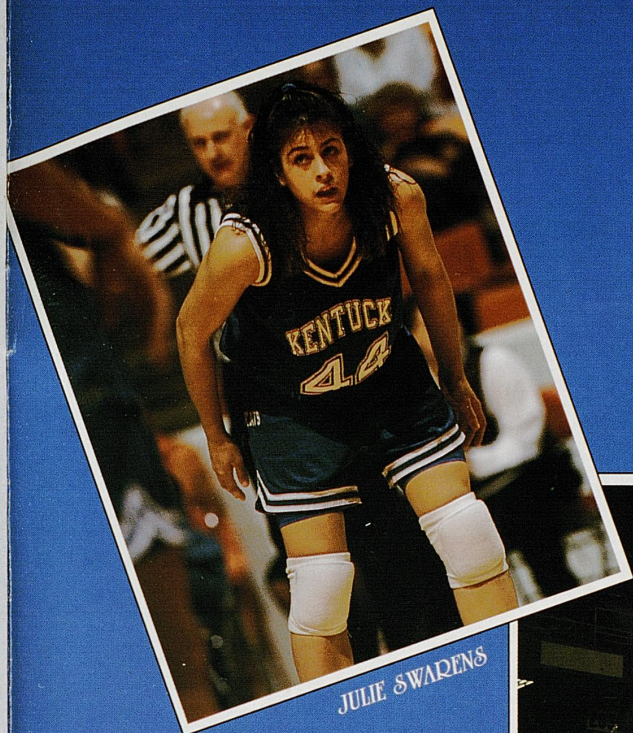

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville, the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site. The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports—bourbon whiskey—is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS: Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth...The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,728,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal...The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"...The state flower is the golden rod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee Tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska...Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors...Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system—Mammoth Cave—with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.
