OUTLOOK

Team Faces Rebuilding Year

Captain Lisa Collins (10) will be counted on to provide leadership to the young squad.

"Devastating," said Coach Terry Hall as she scanned last season's final statistics sheet. "Fifty-one points and 20 rebounds. That's what we won't have this year."

Hall must be excused if it seems as though she is dwelling on her "losses". After all, it wasn't easy to see three four-year starters graduate last spring. Valerie Still was a three-time All-American and runnerup for Player of the Year last season. Patty Jo Hedges was the starting point guard for the United States in the recent Pan Am games in Venezuela. And Lea Wise was an All-Southeastern Conference player and UK's second-leading scorer for the past two years.

Yes, it hurts a little. And the hurt is amplified if you think about having only four players with much experience coming back. And then you become a little more uneasy if you consider the fact that there are 10 games against Top 20 teams on the schedule...and that you're going to be relying heavily on five untested freshman.

But enough! There IS cause for optimism. While the Lady Kats won't be as fast or as experienced this season, they will have more depth than ever before-and more strength. And, perhaps most importantly, they'll have youthful enthusiasm, a trait that has been known to help lesser teams overcome big obstacles.

Hall is banking on a good attitude. And she is predicting that competition for starting spots will bring some of the younger players along faster than might otherwise have been expected. She is also counting on her "veterans" to come through with leadership and consistency.

Two of those veterans are returning starters Lisa Collins and Leslie Nichols. Collins is a two-year starter who is expected to provide floor leadership, as well as outside shooting. Nichols, a sophomore who averaged 11.4 points and seven rebounds last season, will be expected to shoulder more scoring and rebounding responsibility this season.

"Leslie has the potential to be an All-American," says Hall. "But this year she's going to have to play harder. She has the tools-she's quick, a good one-on-one player, shoots well inside, she's a great jumper and rebounder and can handle the ball real well."

Collins, a senior, has started at forward for two seasons after playing guard throughout high school and as a freshman at Kentucky. Hall is hopeful she can move the 5-10 sharp-shooter back to guard this season.

Melissa Napier	26.2	17.0
Melanie Warren	14.0	11.0

"I don't know yet if she'll be able to make the switch, but we really need her outside shooting," Hall says of the 50 percent-plus shooter. "We'll also rely on her for leadership. She's smart and sees everything on the floor. We need her to communicate to her teammates during the game."

Jody Runge, a 6-2 senior, and Karen Mosley, a 6-3 sophomore, provide the other "experience" for the Lady Kats this season. Runge has labored in the awesome shadow of Still for three years, and finally has a real shot to break into the lineup. She averaged five points and three rebounds last season and hit 56.5 percent of her shots.

Mosley should be the chief challenger to Runge at the center position. Last season, she split time between the center and forward and averaged 4.3 points and 3.3 rebounds while hitting 54 percent of her shots.

"Both Jody and Karen played well off the bench last year," Hall said. "Karen is a much better rebounder but Jody is a lot more physical. I think the battle between them should be exciting."

The two veterans will be pushed hard by freshman center Debbie Miller. A 6-1 graduate of Casey County high school in Liberty, Ky., Miller averaged 29 points and 14 rebounds last season and was consensus All-State.

Equally exciting should be the battle for the two guard spots. Senior Donna Martin and junior Diane Stephens will fight it out with two freshman candidates and possibly Collins for the starting assignments.

Stephens is the most experienced player at the guard spot. Last year she played 322 minutes to Martin's 138. Stephens, 5-9, averaged 4.5 points on 40 percent shooting while Martin, 5-7, averaged 1.6 points after being sidelined with an ankle injury early in the season.

"Both players looked good in Japan this summer," Hall said. "And they both see this as their chance since Lea and Patty Jo have gone. Right now they have the experience, so the freshmen are going to be faced with taking the starting jobs from them."

The freshmen are 5-7 Julie Duerring and 5-2 Sandy Harding. Duerring averaged 30 points as an All-State performer at Boone County High School in Florence, Ky. Harding is a lightning-quick whiz kid who is being compared to Hedges and the Kentucky Wildcats' Dicky Beal.

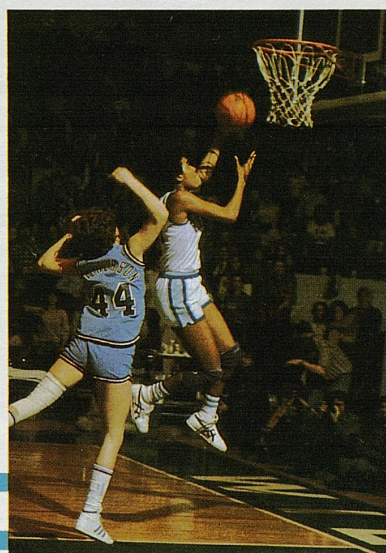

"Sandy is a real flashy player who will undoubtedly be a crowd-pleaser," Hall said. "Julie is a great shooter. I think they are both outstanding in different ways."

Harding averaged 28.2 points, eight assists and six rebounds at Auburn High School in Auburn, N.Y.

The forward spots will be occupied by Nichols, Collins, Mosley or freshman Melissa Napier. Napier, 6-1 averaged 26 points and 17 rebounds at Knox Central High in Barbourville, Kentucky. "Melissa is versatile—she can be an inside player or a shooting forward," Hall said.

Melanie Warren, a 6-6 freshman, and Lynnette Lewis, a 5-9 senior, will provide depth along the front line.

Right now, no position is safe, Hall says. "It's going to be knock down, drag out," she said with a laugh. "I'm really looking forward to the season. It's going to be a new team and I've got a new staff. There's not going to be any time for complacency. We'll all have to work hard and work together."

Leslie Nichols will shoulder more of the scoring and rebounding load this season.

Spirit and enthusiasm will be important on a Lady Kat team that was hit hard by graduation.

COACH TERRY HALL

Indiana State, 1966

When Terry Hall arrived at Kentucky in 1980, the Lady Kats were coming off their most successful season ever and beginning to gain national respect. They had been ranked in the Top 20 throughout the 1979-80 season and had finished the year with a 24-5 record and a berth in the AIAW National playoffs.

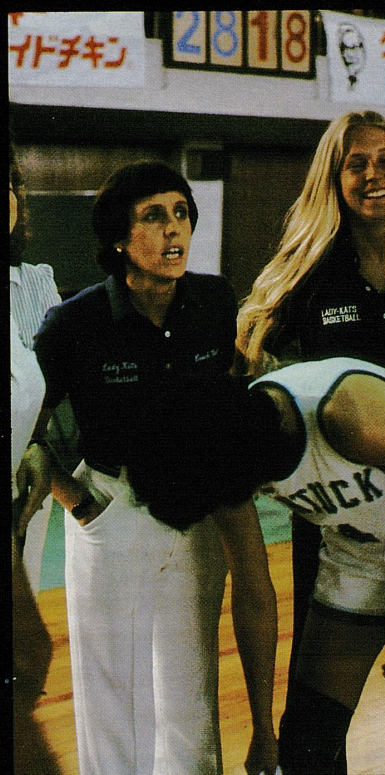

But the season was just a hint of the great things to come under Hall's guidance. The Lady Kats have gone far beyond respectability and into the perennial role of national contender. They have been ranked in the Top 20 every week and averaged 24 wins per season since Hall's arrival.

In her first year at UK, Hall's Lady Kats went 25-6, winning the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and reaching the final round of 16 in the AIAW National tournament. Hall was named the KWIC Coach of the Year that season.

In 1982 and again last season the Lady Kats were considered among the top contenders for the NCAA championship. The 1981-82 squad won the Southeastern Conference championship and reached the quarter-finals of NCAA play before losing to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home floor. Last year's Lady Kats were ranked fourth in the nation but fell to Indiana in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Hall's record at Kentucky is 72-19, and considering Kentucky's tough scheduling habits (10 games with ranked opponents last season AND this season), a .791 winning percentage is outstanding. Her career record is 165-79. That mark includes one season at Eastern Kentucky, five at Louisville and three at Kentucky.

Hall began her coaching career in the high school ranks. Following her graduation from Indiana State in 1966, she was named head coach at Butler High School in Louisville. In five seasons at Butler, Hall coached her teams to two Jefferson County titles and an overall record of 69-33.

Then it was on to Eastern Kentucky University, where Hall earned her Master's Degree in 1974 and was immediately named head basketball coach. The Lady Colonels went 14-6 that season and won the KWIC title over Kentucky, Louisville, Western, Morehead, Murray and Northern Kentucky.

Hall then accepted the coaching job at Louisville, where she was faced with rebuilding a program. She succeeded, guiding the Lady Cards to a 79-54 record over five years. In 1979-80, her last season at U of L, the Lady Cards won their first Metro Conference championship. Hall also coached tennis and softball at U of L.

A native of Salem, Ind., Hall earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Health and P.E. While attending Indiana State, she starred in basketball, field hockey and volleyball. She was honored with the "I" Woman Award in 1965, and received the prestigious Hillman Award in 1966 as the most outstanding female athlete at ISU.

Coach Hall on Working With the Players: "I place a high premium on hard work and dedication to the task at hand. I want my players to feel the same way. I try to teach them that "doors of opportunity" open and close very quickly in life as well as on the basketball court. So always be prepared. In the span of a lifetime, their 4 years of college basketball is short, therefore they should work hard, be dedicated, excel, and enjoy the opportunity that exists."

Coach Hall on Kentucky's Style of Play: "Our style of play, or trademark, is the fast break. We believe that applying immediate pressure on the defensive team is one of the best ways to win a basketball game. Kentucky is one of few teams in the country totally dedicated to fast break basketball. Defensively, we play whatever defense we feel will exploit our opponents' weaknesses. Our main concerns are controlling the tempo of the game, teamwork, and shot selection by our players."

The Terry Hall Show

The Terry Hall Show begins its second season on WTVQ this fall, with Sports Director Kenny Rice once again hosting the weekly production. It is scheduled to air on Sundays at 5 p.m., with the time slot subject to change after the first of the year.

The highly-successful Terry Hall Show was believed to have been one of two women's coaches shows in the nation last year. Once again the program will feature player profiles, game highlights, upcoming opponents, and women's basketball in general.

Mike Kindred

Assistant Coach

Eastern Kentucky University, 1980

Mike was hired as a part-time assistant at UK in July, and then was elevated to full-time assistant in late September following the resignation of assistant coach Dottie Berry. A 1980 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, Mike served for two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, Ky., before coming to UK.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Mike graduated from Clark County High School in 1975. He then attended Morehead State University for one year before transferring to Eastern. He received a degree in Industrial Education, and then taught at Clark County for one year before accepting a job at Estill County.

In his first season at Estill, Mike helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Mike's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better, finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982 and a 19-4 record in 1983.

Mike is very active in the Big Brothers-Big Sisters program, and currently sits on the organization's Advisory Board in Winchester. He is also an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was the FCA's 10th Region representative last year while coaching at Estill County.

Joining the coaching staff at UK fulfills a life-time dream for Mike, a 26-year old bachelor who has always been a "Big Blue" fan.

ROBIN BOARD

Graduate Assistant

Louisville, 1983

A former player for Coach Terry Hall at Louisville, Robin joined the Lady Kat staff in September. While at Louisville, Robin lettered in basketball four consecutive years, two of those seasons with Coach Hall at the helm. She was a member of the Lady Card teams that won Metro Conference titles in 1979 and 1981 and is in the record book for best free throw percentage in a season, which she set in 1979. Robin was also an outstanding high school player at Louisville Butler High. She helped her team to the Girls' State Tournament in 1976 and 1978. She was All-State honorable mention for three straight years and played in the East-West All-Star game in 1978. She also played tennis for three seasons and ran track one year at Butler.

Robin is pursuing a Masters Degree in Recreational Therapy at UK. She has a great interest in young people and has participated as a volunteer for Special Olympics for five straight years. She also is credited with starting two Youth Basketball Camps in 1981 and 1982 at the St. Matthews YMCA in Louisville.

A former collegiate softball player at U of L, Robin has umpired softball and officiated basketball and volleyball. She is 23 years old and single.

Lisa Collins

5-10 Senior

Birthdate: 10-30-62

Coach Hall On Lisa

66 Lisa has been a tremendous player for our program. She cares only that we win and not who gets the credit. She is a great shooter under pressure and needs to give our young squad leadership this season. 99

As the most experienced player on the Lady Kats' squad this season, Lisa will be relied on heavily to provide leadership and stability to the team. And while it is certain that her floor responsibilities will shift in some way, Coach Hall is not sure yet exactly how. A guard throughout her high school career and first year of college, Lisa started at forward for the past two years at UK. Her size and strength make her more natural at guard, however, and Hall hopes she'll be able to move back to that spot for her final season.

Whatever position Lisa plays, she'll be counted on to provide more outside scoring than before. Even as a forward, most of her shots came from the 20-foot range. Last season she averaged 7.3 points and was the team's fifth-leading scorer. Her career average is 7 points on 50.3 percent shooting.

With the graduation of the fine outside shooting of Lea Wise, Lisa will have to pick up the slack for the Lady Kats this year. Last season her point production picked up toward the end of the season and she hit double figures a total of nine times. Still, her career scoring high came as a freshman guard, when she scored 19 points in a reserve role against South Carolina.

Lisa's court strength lies in her sound fundamental skills and ability to see the entire court during action. She is also an outstanding shooter, both from the field and the line. And for two consecutive seasons, she has made fewer turnovers per minute played than any other Lady Kat.

A three-time All-State player, Lisa was named Kentucky's "Miss Basketball" as a senior in high school and was also a first-team Parade magazine All-American. Lisa's Laurel County High School teams won the state championship three times while she was a starting guard. Lisa was recently voted squad co-captain by her teammates.

Coach Hall On Lynnette

“Lynnette is a great team player. She always gives a good effort on the court. She played well for us in Japan last spring, and I know she is excited about the upcoming season.”

A serious knee injury has limited the contributions Lynnette could make on the court the past two years. But not one to sit idly by, she has emerged as a spiritual leader of sorts, and was recognized for that role by her teammates recently when they elected her co-captain of the squad along with senior Lisa Collins. A 1980 graduate of Cawood High School, Lynnette was invited to walk on to the Lady Kat squad, and turned down scholarship offers elsewhere to do so. After a fine freshman season, she suffered the injury to her right knee in a summer practice. The following fall, she reinjured her knee, tearing cartilage and ligaments and, as a result, sat out her sophomore season. Last year she was welcomed back as a player, but her on-the-court contributions were still slowed by the injury. A former All-State honorable mention performer at Cawood, Lynnette led her team to a 90-25 record over four seasons. An outstanding shooter, she hopes to be fully recovered this year and help lead the team on the court, as well.

Birthdate: 11-30-62

Coach Hall On Donna

“Donna is a real fireball! She hustles all the time and makes things happen on the court. Her aggressive play is a great asset. She played her best basketball in Japan last spring.”

Donna's career has been a series of highs and lows, and the note she finishes on could be a key to any success the Lady Kats might have this season. A player of great intensity and desire, Donna can use her enthusiasm and experience to help fill the void at guard that resulted with the graduation of four-year starters Lea Wise and Patty Jo Hedges. After graduating from Lexington's Bates Creek High School in 1980, Donna enrolled at Valdosta State, where she intended to play basketball. But homesickness lured her back to Lexington and she was immediately welcomed onto the Lady Kat team as a walkon. A year later, Donna was on full scholarship. She had a fine sophomore year, contributing her best performances in the most important games. Last season, she was expected to be the first guard substitute off the bench, but suffered a setback in Kentucky's season opener against Cincinnati, when she severely twisted her ankle. As a result, she missed action in 10 of the team's 28 games, and failed to regain top form until late in the season. Donna has outstanding quickness and is a good ball handler and leaper. Her play in the team's summer tour of Japan was very good, as she averaged four points a game on 45 percent shooting.

Jody Runge

6-2 Senior
Center
Waukon, IA
Major: Biology
Birthdate: 8-27-62

Coach Hall On Jody

66 Jody is a good rebounder and is effective in traffic under the basket. She has been a dependable player and has improved each season she has been at Kentucky. I expect her senior year to be her best. 99

Determination and hard work for three years should make Jody's senior year her best ever at Kentucky. In the past three years, Jody has started only six times for the Lady Kats. As a backup to three-time All-American Valerie Still, playing time has been somewhat limited for her. But whenever she was called upon, Jody was ready. And with Kentucky's perennially tough schedule, frequently she was matched up against some of the top centers in the nation.

Jody's progress has been well noted since her arrival at Kentucky. As a high school player in Iowa, she competed in the six-player style of basketball, where teams are divided into offense and defense. Each year she has improved, and last season was her best yet at Kentucky, as she averaged 5 points, three rebounds and shot 56.5 percent from the field. She scored in double figures five times while playing in all but two Kentucky games. In the Lady Kats' tour of Japan this summer, Jody averaged six points and five rebounds in six games.

A physical player, Jody will be counted on to provide strength as well as scoring underneath for Kentucky this year.

A three-time All-State player for Waukon High School Jody once scored 81 points in a single game and totaled 2,296 career points.

Her father, Dennis, played basketball at the University of Iowa.

ith the graduation of four-year starters Lea Wise and Patty Jo Hedges, Diane steps out of the shadows and into the role of "Most Experienced Guard" on the Kentucky squad. A player with undying determination and enthusiasm, she has worked extremely hard in the off season in an effort to contribute better to the team's success. As a result of her hard work, she has lost weight and picked up more quickness going into her junior year. Last year, she played in all but one game, which she missed because of an ankle injury. She averaged 4.5 points and 1.7 rebounds, and hit in double figures four times. An excellent shooter, Diane will be counted on to provide outside scoring, as well as experience at the guard spot. She is one of the finest free throw shooters on the squad, and proved that last year when she broke Lisa Collins' consecutive free throw attempts. She now has a career percentage of 84.0 from the line. A graduate of Southern High School in Louisville, Diane was an All-State player her senior year.

Leslie Nichols

6-0 Sophomore Forward
Lexington, KY
Major: Pre-veterinary
Birthdate: 7-7-64

Coach Hall On Leslie

“Leslie had a tremendous freshman year and my expectations for her are very high. She is one of the most talented players to ever play at Kentucky. Her great athletic ability indicates a great career for Leslie.”

For the first time in four seasons, Kentucky will have someone other than Valerie Still leading the team in scoring and rebounding. And it's no secret that Leslie seems to be the heir apparent to Still. As a freshman last season, Leslie seemed to only scratch the surface of her potential while averaging 11.4 points and seven rebounds a game. Her outstanding leaping ability and smoothness of style made comparisons to Still inevitable. But with Valerie beside her in the lineup game after game, Leslie failed to really “take control” at crucial points last year. Coach Hall is hoping that will change now.

An All-American candidate, Leslie can receive the recognition her coach believes she deserves if she becomes more aggressive and gives her best effort. She showed flashes of brilliance as a freshman, scoring 20 points or more three times, and hitting double figures 17 times. A starter in all 28 UK games, she rebounded in double figures nine times, pulling down 14 in two different games. Season highlights were a 23-point, 14-rebound performance against Alabama, and a 21-point, 10-rebound effort against Georgia. Both of those games were on the road.

A left-hander, Leslie shot 52.6 percent from the field and 67 percent from the free throw line. Her defense wasn't bad, either, as she intimidated foes with 38 blocked shots—20 more than any other Lady Kat.

Leslie is a graduate of Henry Clay High School in Lexington. She was a two-time All-State player and was a fourth-team Parade All-American her senior year.

6-3 Sophomore
Center
Toledo, OH

Major: Business Administration
Birthdate: 10-14-63

Coach Hall On Karen

“Karen was a significant factor in our success last season, and after finishing her freshman year, should make her presence known throughout the SEC. She is a good shooter, has great jumping ability, and with maturity, is going to be great.”

Consistency and maturity could make Karen one of the real surprises in the Southeastern Conference this season. A youngster with outstanding leaping ability and finesse, Karen appeared on the verge of breaking loose several times last season. During the Lady Kat Invitational Tournament, she had back-to-back performances of 12 points and nine rebounds on consecutive days against South Florida and Arkansas. And against Tennessee toward the end of the season, she led Kentucky to an upset victory in Knoxville by hitting 5-of-5 field goal attempts and blocking two shots in 15 minutes of action.

Karen split time between forward and center last season, and has a chance to start at either spot this year. She can greatly enhance her chances by adding strength and aggressiveness to her repertoire. As a freshman, Karen averaged 4.3 points and 3.3 rebounds and hit 53.6 percent of her field goal attempts. Although she failed to start in any of last year's games, she did play in all 28 contests.

A graduate of Bowsher High School in Toledo, Karen earned second-team Parade All-America honors by averaging 25.7 points and 15.7 rebounds during her senior season.

Major: Education
Birthdate: 8-3-65

Coach Hall On Debbie

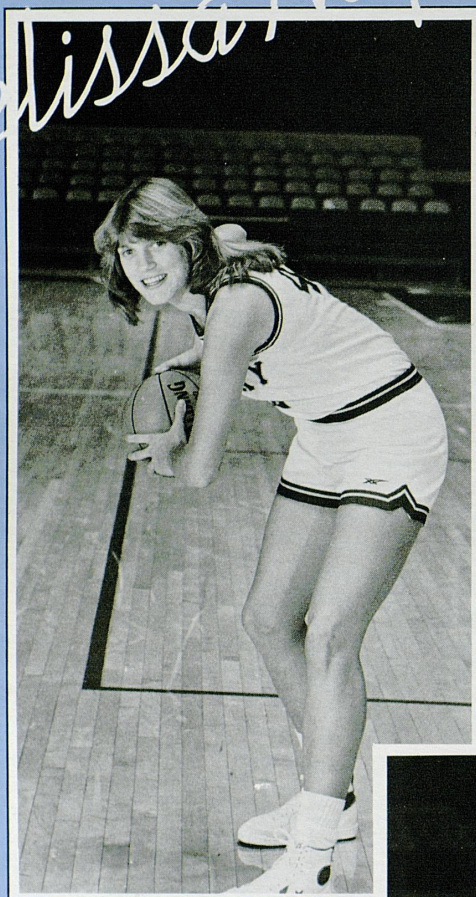

66 A good inside player, Debbie is strong and has good shooting touch on the ball. She is not afraid of contact, plays hard, and should make a real contribution to our team this season. 99

In Debbie, the Lady Kats find the physical player they have lacked in recent years. A strong, aggressive center, Debbie is one of several freshmen who have a shot at cracking the lineup this season. Her goal has always been to play for Kentucky, and she comes in well-prepared after enduring four years of double- and triple-teaming at Casey County. A first-team All-State selection and runner-up in balloting for Miss Basketball, Debbie averaged 29 points and 14 rebounds last year. She shot better than 70 percent from the field and 85 percent from the free throw line last season. As a four-year starter at Casey County, Debbie scored 2,413 career points.

Coach Hall On Melissa

66 Melissa is a hard worker who really hustles on the court. She plays well inside or out, and is a good shooter. She plays with great intensity and pride. 99 elissa is a strong, quick player who will supply depth at both big and small forward this season. A good ball handler, she has the mobility, strength and shooting touch to help an offense that is suffering the loss of its top three scorers. Last year at Knox Central High School, Melissa averaged 26 points and 17 rebounds. For three seasons she averaged more than 20 points and 10 rebounds, and was chosen Southeastern Kentucky Conference Player of the Year each time. A varsity starter since the 8th grade, Melissa started for the Kentucky All-Stars in the annual Kentucky-Indiana Series last summer. She was a second-team All-State selection. Melissa also competed in tennis and track in high school, and was third in the Class AA state long jump competition.

Major: Nursing
Birthdate: 11-14-64

Coach Hall On Julie

66 Julie is a great shooter but also a great passer. She is a fine team player, a hard worker, and has a great attitude. I expect her to contribute immediately to our program. 99

One of the most prolific scorers in the state last season, Julie brings to Kentucky a good outside threat, leadership capabilities, strength and fine ball handling skills. With the guard position severely depleted by graduation, she could be an important factor for the Lady Kats this season. At Boone County High School, she averaged 31 points and six rebounds while leading her team to the quarter-finals of the Girls' State tournament. She was named to the All-State Tournament squad and was later named first-team All-State. Her Boone County team finished the season with a 30-4 record. Julie was highly recruited by many of the top programs in the country, but committed to Kentucky early in the fall of last year. Also an excellent leaper, Julie could be one of the top guards in the SEC before she graduates.

Sandy Harding

5-2 Freshman
Guard
Auburn, NY
Major: Communications
Birthdate: 3-15-65

Exceptional speed, quickness and ball handling skills make it a sure bet that tiny Sandy is going to be an exciting, crowd-pleasing player. She has the talent and versatility to overcome her lack of height and possibly even step into the starting lineup. Teammates and staff are already comparing her to sensational ex-Lady Kat Patty Jo Hedges and current Wildcat wizard Dicky Beal. Sandy's ability was recognized at an early age, when she was winner of the NBA national Hot Shot competition in the 8th grade, and then was runner-up the following year. She holds the all-time Auburn High School and Central New York scoring record with 1,780 points. She was the high scorer in the Empire State Games in New York in 1980 and 1981. As a senior at Auburn High School, Sandy averaged 28.2 points, eight assists and six rebounds to lead her team to a 19-3 record.

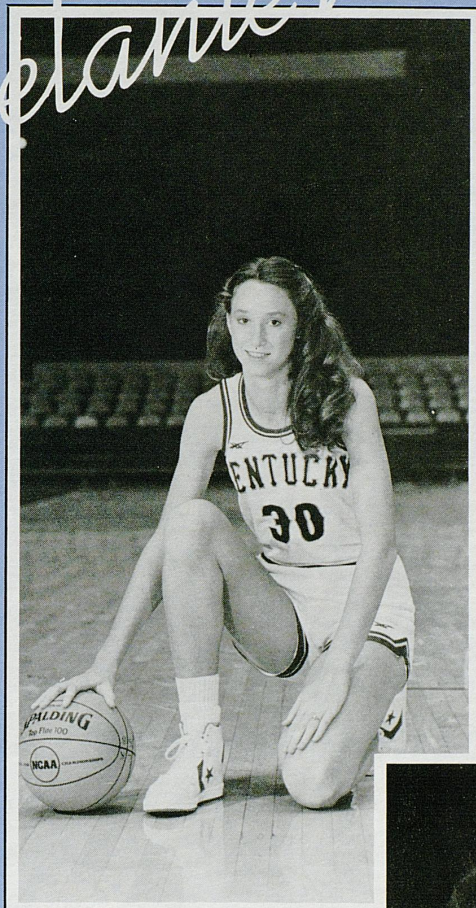

Personality Profile

Coach Hall On Sandy

66 Sandy is exceptionally fast and quick. She is a small player who plays with great intensity. She is a good ball handler and will be an exciting player for our fans to watch. 99

Melanie Warren

6-6 Freshman
Center
Owensboro, KY
Major: Undecided
Birthdate: 12-18-65

Coach Hall On Melanie

66 Melanie has good speed, quickness, and mobility for a big girl. She can improve through hard work this season. She has exciting potential and I expect will perform well her first season at Kentucky. 99 elanie has the distinction of being the tallest player to ever wear a Lady Kat uniform. Melanie has good hands and a good close-in shot, but needs more weight and strength to reach top potential. She is a mobile player who moves up and down the court well for a big person. Her height naturally makes her intimidating on defense. Melanie did not begin her basketball career until her junior year in high school. Her first year, she averaged only four points and five rebounds a game, while playing only about 10 minutes each contest. But she worked very hard the next summer and improved dramatically. As a result, she averaged 14 points, 11 rebounds and five blocked shots as a senior, and was named second team All-State.

M

 Lady Kats

Gone But Not Forgotten

1983 SENIORS

The senior class of 1983 will not soon be forgotten by Lady Kat basketball fans. Valerie Still, Patty Jo Hedges, Lea Wise and Terri Naiser were key factors in elevating the program to the national prominence it enjoys today. Valerie and Patty Jo are now playing basketball in Italy and hope to try out for the 1984 U.S. Olympic squad. Patty Jo was the starting point guard for the U.S. when the Americans won the Pan Am games recently. Lea graduated in telecommunications and will be doing color commentary on the Lady Kats' radio broadcasts, while Terri is finishing up her degree at UK.

Japan

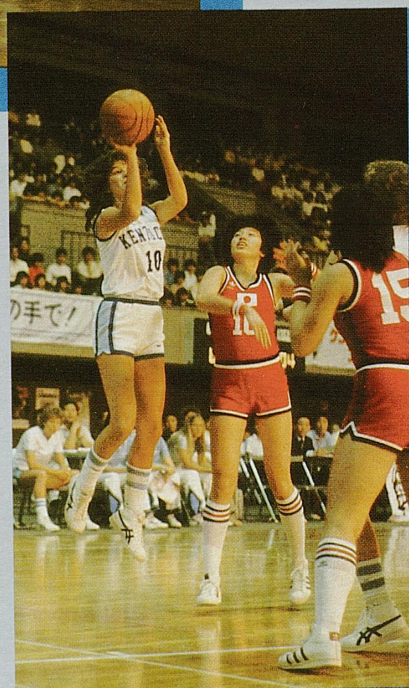

For the third consecutive summer, the Lady Kats combined basketball with adventure in the Far East and for the third consecutive summer, they came back with memories and experiences that will stay with them forever.

This trip was made more special because Coach Terry Hall and her players knew it would be their last trip to Japan for a while. Since the Lady Kats are operating under NCAA rules now, they must comply with the regulation that allows teams to travel abroad only once every four years. That sad fact made Kentucky's departure more tearful than it had been in the past two summers. The UK players were saying goodbye to friends they had grown to love and would likely never see again.

And the Japanese were equally emotional. In a touching ceremony following the final game of the series, seniors Valerie Still, Patty Jo Hedges and Lea Wise stood at mid-court as a standing-room-only crowd stood and cheered while My Old Kentucky Home played in the background. At the same time, the public address announcer thanked the three for delighting the Japanese people with exciting basketball over the years.

The experience of touring Japan the two previous summers made the third trip a charm both on and off the court. The Kentucky delegation had learned to appreciate Japanese culture and to admire and respect their generous hosts more than ever. And the players had a better time on the court, too, since they were experienced with international basketball.

The teams met six times in six different cities, traveling about on the famous Japanese "bullet trains." Kentucky won the first five games but lost the final contest. Coach Hall feels the competition will benefit this season's team.

"I allowed the returning players to play together as much as possible and I was real encouraged by the progress they made," she said. "I saw good signs of improved team play."

Third Tour Of Japan 'Best Yet'

Departing senior Valerie Still led Kentucky in scoring (14.5) and rebounding (10.7). Forwards Leslie Nichols, who will be a sophomore next year, and Lisa Collins, who will be a senior, followed Still in scoring and rebounding. Nichols fired in 59 percent of her shots and averaged 13.5 points and 6.2 rebounds, while Collins hit 52 percent and averaged 8.2 points and three rebounds.

But the Lady Kats did much more than simply play basketball. Off-the-

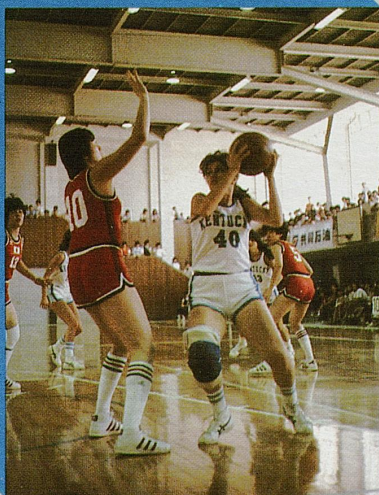

From Tokyo, the group traveled to the beautiful old city of Kyoto, the former capitol of Japan. Next stop was Nagoya, and then on to Kobe, a port city that provided another memorable experience. While some of the players were shopping, they ran into a couple from Tennessee. To their pleasant surprise, the players learned that the couple was in Kobe because their ship, the Pacific Princess, was in port there. The Pacific Princess is the oceanliner seen in the popular television series, "The Love Boat."

The Tennessee couple, Dr. and Mrs. Orv Schuch, invited some of the team aboard for a tour the next morning, and it turned out to be a highlight of the trip. "I know I'll never forget it," said senior forward Lynette Lewis. "It was fascinating. Everyone on board was so nice to us... the crew, the passengers, and especially the Schuchs."

Next on the agenda was the small city of Shizouka, and finally to Yokohama, just outside Tokyo. Following the final games, a "Sayonara" banquet provided a setting for the fond farewells. Everyone vowed to meet again some day.

"We have toured Japan for three years and we've improved each time," Coach Hall said. "But equally important, we enjoyed the trip more each time. It's a great experience for the girls and I hope we can go back again."

court excitement began at the team's first stop in Tokyo, where they met tennis stars Tracy Austin and Pam Shriver, who were staying in the same hotel as the Lady Kats. Tracy and Pam were in Japan for a professional tournament.

Coach Terry Hall, flanked by UK Athletics Director Cliff Hagan and players Lea Wise and Valerie Still, takes her turn at a press conference in Tokyo.

KENTUCKY

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound—there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band—or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available—and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat and Lady Kat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities in basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena or Lady Kat games in Memorial Coliseum, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in the 11,500-seat Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

UK

The University of Kentucky's 716-acre campus is located south of downtown Lexington, Ky., which has a population of approximately one-quarter million people. There are approximately 200 buildings and other structures, walks, malls, gardens, playing fields, recreation space and parking areas on campus.

Academic Program

The University has 17 academic colleges: Arts and Sciences . . . Agriculture . . . Engineering . . . Business and Economics . . . Education . . . Home Economics . . . Library Science . . . Social Work . . . Architecture . . . Communications . . . Fine Arts . . . Law . . . Medicine . . . Dentistry . . . Nursing Allied Health Professions . . . Pharmacy.

Research

The University Library system contains approximately 1.7 million volumes and ranks 13th in the nation in microform holdings.

Among the major areas of research at the University are energy, engineering, medical (especially cancer research on the aging) and agriculture (especially in tobacco and equine).

Faculty

UK's faculty numbers 1,430 on the Lexington campus. Including a graduate family of approximately 950.

Student Body

Enrollment on UK's Lexington campus is more than 23,000. The students come from every county in Kentucky and 48 other states and the District of Columbia and 78 foreign countries.

Approximately 5,400 students live in UK's resident halls with another 1,156 students in UK's 25 fraternities and 17 sororities.

Alumni

The University has approximately 70,000 alumni around the world with more than 22,500 of them paid members of UK's Alumni Association.

There are 65 alumni clubs across the nation, with 34 of them in Kentucky and 31 outside the state from California to New York.

Community Colleges

The Lexington campus also is headquarters for UK's Community College System. UK has 13 of these two-year colleges across the state with a current enrollment of 20,700 students.

Medical Center

UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical College has a wide range of programs in education and research. The five colleges—Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Allied Health Professions—have more than 2,000 students pursuing bachelor, master's and doctoral degrees in health-related fields.

The Medical Center also has a 470-bed University Hospital as part of its teaching and service programs.

Memorial Coliseum seems an appropriate place to have hosted the largest crowd ever to attend a women's college basketball game. Already rich in the tradition of 30 years of

MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Wildcat and Lady Kat basketball, it was only fitting that the historic old Coliseum be the site of the record-breaking crowd that watched the Lady Kats upset fifth-ranked Old Dominion on February 5, 1983. On that cold Saturday night, 10,622 enthusiastic fans filed into the 11,500-seat gymnasium and roared their team on to an 80-66 victory.

The Coliseum has been the exclusive home of the Lady Kats since the Wildcats moved downtown to 23,000-seat Rupp Arena in 1976. Throughout their 24-year history in Memorial, the Wildcats established a tradition that is recognized throughout the world. And the Lady Kats have proudly carried on that tradition. They were ranked fourth nationally after the Old Dominion victory last season, and in their three remaining home games they averaged 7,600 fans, twice breaking the 8,000-spectator mark.

Just as their male counterparts did before them, the Lady Kats have made Memorial Coliseum the home of a winning, high-class program. They have compiled a 90-20 record in eight seasons at home, and extended a home-court winning streak to 31 games before losing to Memphis State midway through the 1981-82 season.

Plans for construction of the Coliseum began in 1941, when Dr. H. L. Donovan became president of the University and recommended a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health services, our physical education and our recreation."

The Coliseum was completed in 1950 at a cost of $3,925,000. The huge building was dedicated to serve as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentuckians who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict. The Coliseum covers an entire city block and has as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along the Avenue of Champions, Memorial Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games and Athletic Department offices, but also serves as the site of other sporting events, as well as concerts and lectures.

“FAN”-ING THE FIRE!

Some of the 10,622 fans (above) that set a women's collegiate basketball attendance record pour onto the floor following Kentucky's 80-66 upset victory over Old Dominion last year. "Superfans" such as Gloria Singletary (upper inset) and Betty Zaranka (lower inset) are two of the reasons the Lady Kats can claim to have "the best fans in the world." At left, graduated star Valerie Still was mobbed by autograph-seeking youngsters following one of many homecourt victories last season.
