Introductory.

WE take pleasure in presenting to our many patrons this, our first Directory of Lexington and Fayette County, and we hope upon examination it may prove satisfactory. We have brought to this work the experience of many years and have conscientiously endeavored to make it a credit to the city as well as to ourselves. We intend to renew our Directory in 1900 and hope this work will merit the approval of our patrons and cause them to retain their patronage for us two years hence. Respectfully,

EMERSON & DARK.

FISHING HUNTING

Beech Glen
HOTEL

Fish and Game Abundant. Experienced Guides.

STAUNCH BOATS.

NESTLING among the rugged mountains, whose peaks rise 1800 feet, the tourist and sportsman will find an ideal spot, full of grandeur and beauty, in Nicholas county, West Virginia—it lies at the point where the C. & O. Ry. crosses Gauley River, just 8 miles above its mouth. The mountains and forests abound in game—bear, deer, turkeys, pheasants, squirrels, etc. The waters of the Gauley swarm with fish—bass, salmon, channel cat, etc.

The Hotel. Beech Glen is on the river's bank, where there is a pool one mile in length and having an average depth of 20 feet of clear sparkling water. Eight miles above are the Peters Creek Falls, "The Parting Rock" and "Wooing Lake," places of great interest. Five miles above the hotel are "The Roughs of Gauley," where the sparkling waters rushing among the huge boulders, with occasional pools and abounding with bass, the angler is in his glory. Come and see.
